THE SITUATION IN NORTH CAROLINA.

The condition of affairs in our sister State, North Carolina, is anything but promising; in fact, it is deplorable. Almost the first of the Southern States to accept reconstruction, she has progressed from bad to worse until now neither life nor property is safe within her borders. Lawlessness reigns everywhere, and plunderers and murderers stalk abroad almost without molestation, while the orderly and law abiding people are overawed by well organized bands of maranders. In addition to this the people are cursed by one of the most corrupt governments that has ever existed in the days of enlightenment and civilization.

These evils most arise from the conduct of the officials whom an ignorant and irresponsible class has chosen to administer the laws of the State. Probably there never was gathered together such a set of unmitigated rascals as have been lording it over the people of North Carolina. From Holden, a native renegade, who has betrayed the interests of his people, down to the most insignificant of his parasites, there seems but one motive that animates them, and that is plunder. If all the outrages that are reported to us are not perpetrated by the followers of Holden, they are the direct cause of them. Their secret "leagues" exist in every part of the State, and the object of them is to band one class of people against the other, and to terrify their opponents by hunting them down, outraging their persons, and burning their houses. Such proceedings, of course, beget counter-organizations, whose designs are defensive and retaliatory; and thus the country is filled with secret bands which roam over the State, creating violence and terror.

All good citizens utterly deplore this situation of affairs. They are heartily sick and tired of this continued strife and disorder. They want peace and quietude, and a general return to every day pursuits. But the Holden crew are endeavoring, by every means within its power, to perpetuate this reign of anarchy. The election comes off in August, and the Radicals know that unless they bring fraud, chicanery and intimidation to bear in the contest they will inevitably be dislodged from the places which they have so long prostituted to the basest of ends. The most mendacious stories are concocted and sent off over the country concerning the outrages which they say are the doings of Conservative Ku-Klux. The latest plot which they have formed is organizing a militia force for the ostensible purpose of preserving the peace, but really to intimidate the people by introducing the bayonet at the polls. These hirelings of Holden, composed of the most desperate and reckless of men to be found in the State, know too well how to do the will of their chief, and the probability is that there will be inaugurated a system of terrorism which shall eclipse the dark scenes of the past.

The only hope for the people of the State is in the approaching election. Upon the result of the contest depends the future welfare of the State. For four years more of such misgovernment as the last four have been will well nigh put the State in such a condition that it would require years of toil and exertion to restore it to its former proud place in the Union of States. Even now her credit is gone, her most prominent institutions of learning have been overturned, her works of internal improvements are mostly managed in the interests of the most unprincipled of cliques, and the taxes of the people most oppressive.

We are glad to see that the Conservatives appreciate the importance of the election, and are making the most strenuous exertions to win the day. From all parts of the State comes the intelligence that the people are thoroughly aroused; and determined that an era of good government shall again visit North Carolina. The campaign is progressing finely, and every indication points to the downfall of Holden and his satraps. If such should be the case not only North Carolina will rejoice but all enemies of organized rascality and villainy will rejoice with them.

From the Western Sentinel.

"DAMNATION!"

This, reader, is not our profanity, but was the expression we heard from the lips of a prominent Radical a few days ago, after reading Holden's war article calling for a standing army. "Damnation," says he, "don't Holden know there is no use for anything of the kind, and that we are too poor to pay the expenses of these troops, and that the time for overawing the people by military rule has passed, and that the people of North Carolina are too proud and independent to be driven by the bayonet now to the support of any party, and that honest Republicans are not willing to see their fellow-citizens of an opposite party beaten in any such manner, and that they will not support any party that does it, but will cast their votes with those who oppose such extravagance and oppression. Yes, sir, a free ballot is our greatest privilege, and if the Republican party takes it away from the Conservatives by military or other power we have no free Republic, and what then may we expect in the future? Why, nothing but a French Empire, where the people are allowed to vote if they vote as the Emperor wants them to. A free ballot is the only protection the people have from oppression, and this call for troops makes that the issue. Every other issue is insignificant beside it.

THEY say in Washington that Fish is to be removed that he may be made Minister to England and inaugurate a positive Alabama claims policy, Motley not being sufficiently vigorous and too much disposed to go into mourning over Greek massacres.

None of the cadets appointed from the South were admitted at West Point, except two, and they were two out of the eight sent from Virginia. All the rest were sent home, having failed at the preliminary examination.

A man arrived in Sioux City on the 17th ult., with 42,000 muskrat skins, 500 mink, 300 otter and 500 wolf skins, purchased from the Indians in that vicinity.

Chicago has a horse that chews tobacco, and is regularly furnished with the weed by his groom.

WALTHAM WATCHES.

THE EXTENSIVE USE OF THESE WATCHES for the last fifteen years by Railway Conductors, Engineers, and Expressmen, the most exacting of watch-wearers, has thoroughly demonstrated the strength, steadiness, durability and accuracy of the Waltham Watch. To satisfy that class in all these respects, is to decide the question as to the real value of these time-keepers.

More than 450 000 of these watches are now speaking for themselves in the pockets of the people—a proof and a guarantee of their superiority over all others.

The superior organization and great extent of the Company's Works at Waltham, enable them to produce watches at a price which renders competition futile, and those who buy any other watch, merely pay from 25 to 50 per cent. more for their watches than is necessary.

We are now selling Waltham Watches at less prices in greenbacks, than the gold prices before the war. There is no other manufactire of any kind in the United States of which this can be said.

These time-pieces combine every improvement that a long experience has proved of real practical use. Having had the refusal of nearly every invention in watchmaking originating in this country or in Europe, only those were finally adopted which severe testing by the most skillful artisans in our works, and long use on the part of the public, demonstrated to be essential to correct and enduring time-keeping.

Among the many improvements we would particularize:

The invention and use of a centre-pinion of peculiar construction, to prevent damage to the train by the breakage of main springs, is original with the American Watch Company, who, having had the refusal of all other contrivances, adopted Fogg's Patent pinion as being the best and faultless.

Hardened and tempered hair springs, now universally admitted by watchmakers to be the best, are used in all grades of Waltham Watches.

All Waltham Watches have dust-proof caps, protecting the movement from dust and lessening the necessity of the frequent cleaning necessary in other watches.

Our new patent stem-winder, or keyless watch, is already a decided success and a great improvement on any stem-winding watch in the American market, and by far the cheapest watch of its quality now offered to the public. To those living in portions of the United States where watchmakers do not abound, watches with the above mention d improvements which tend to insure accuracy, cleanliness, durability and convenience, must prove invaluable.

Every watch guaranteed by the Company.

To prevent imposition, buyers should see that every watch should bear either of the following trade marks.

American Watch Co.,	Waltham, Mass.
Amn Watch Co.	Waltham, Mass.
American Watch Co., Crescent St.,	Waltham, Mass.
Appleton, Tracy & Co.,	Waltham, Mass.
Waltham Watch Co.,	Waltham, Mass.

NO TIME.

We stated yesterday that we had no time to bandy personalities with the Governor's son and organ, till after the election; and we certainly have not the capacity to descend to his level in the game, at any time. Slander and scandal seem to be necessary to the healthy circulation of that paper ever since the appearance in it of the article "Work," which defamed, in the vilest manner, every lady in the State.

The Democratic members of the Bar, and of the Legislature have been slandered and traduced by it.

Judge Merrimon was published in it as a drunken grog shop visitor, whereas it is well known that he never took a drink of spirits in his life.

It would profit no one, and amuse only, perhaps, a few of the boys about town, for us to tell how Joseph settles his bar bills with slow notes, and how he refused to pay one bill until he was "whaled" in Tucker's back yard. And how he refused to settle for a certain barrel of whiskey, for which he became surety, although there is judgment and execution hanging over both him and the principle for the money.

We might tell how he failed to give in and pay his poll tax when he was elected to the General Assembly.

We might insist on that choking he got from Shakespear, and bring the five or six nymphs, who were present, to prove it, but it would not entertain nor instruct the public half so much as the question of taxation and the exposure of the blunders, extravagance and dishonesty of his Daddy's administration.

These are the subjects for our pen until after the election. We shall not go into an expose of family matters, which might be done, if we chose to descend to that sort of game.

Joe can beat us at billingsgate; we are ahead of him on truth.

PROSPECTS IN THE WEST.—A gentleman who has recently travelled extensively in the western part of the State, and whose business led him into converse with many in the country, as well as in the towns, says he never before saw such evidences of a complete political revolution as is now going on in almost every neighborhood, town and village he visited. The military movement of the Governor, and the appointment of the notorious Kirk as military commander, has done the work. The people in the West say, there is no more acts of violence there than in any other State, and they can see no other object the Governor has than to burden the people with still heavier taxes and prevent a free election, and they will not aid in the movement

TALENTED FAMILIES, OR POOLS AND COBBS.

The Cobbs and the Pools of Pasquotank have a great talent, or, at least, thirst, for office, as will be seen, from the following:

The Pools. Johny Pool is United States Senator. Rev. Soloman Pool is a Justice of the Peace, President of what is called the University of North Carolina, and ex-revenue assessor. George D. Pool, brother to Soloman and also to John, is county commissioner in Pasquotank, and one of Holden's ex J. P's. C. C. Pool, son of George and nephew of his two uncles, is Judge of the Superior Court, and Dr. W. G. Pool is county Treasurer of Pasquotank.

The Cobbs.—"Hon." C. L. Cobb is the youngest and greenest member of Congress, from the first district. Rev. Wm. Cobb, brother of C. L., is Chaplain in the Navy. G. W. Cobb is collector of the port, and Mayor of Elizabeth City. One of the Cobb family is collector or assessor in the revenue in the neighboring Province of Virginia.

For all these honors and profits the Pools and the Cobbs are indebted to the negroes of Eastern North Carolina, and they knew the value of the favor before they bargained for it.

All the male issue of these two families being provided for, the Pools and Cobbs seem to have concluded that no other white family in their bailiwick should hold any office or place of trust and profit, and hence they proclaim Cardoza, the Pennsylvania negro, for Sheriff.

It is a great pity that there is not one more Pool or Cobb to make a Sheriff of; if there had been, Cardoza would have had to wait, or take some other appointment.

If there be any young Pool or Cobb within a year or two of majority, we suggest the arrangement that the Pennsylvania negro have the place until the young man attain the responsible period, and then give place to the rising expectant.

Great are the Cobbs and Pools for place and position!

SIT PAX!

There are quite a number of "Friends" or Quakers in the counties of Guilford, Randolph, Davidson, Northampton, Pasquotank and Perquimons. They were, formerly, Whigs, to a man. They loved peace on earth, and bore good will to all mankind.

Many, if not most of these Friends are now Republicans. They would not vote for Blair because of his "war breathing letter," as they termed it.

We ask them now, what they think of Kirk being called from East Tennessee to raise a regiment of troops in Western North Carolina, where it is not alleged that a Ku Klux exists? Two regiments are to be raised and put on the footing of regular troops, in every respect.

It was formerly estimated that in the regular army of the United States, each man cost the government one thousand dollars. These two regiments of a thousand men each, at the same rate, for six months for which they are enlisted, would cost the State one million dollars! But suppose the State troops cost but half what United States troops cost, and the debt saddled on the State will be five hundred thousand dollars!

Are the Friends willing that the taxes they pay shall be applied to these war purposes?

We publish, for the information of Friends, and all others, a letter taken from the Standard of a recent date, under the head of "cheering news from the West."

Let the Friends remember that Gov. Holden was "anxious for the late fray," that we had. He wrote and spoke for it for twenty years before he got it. When the "fray" did come he called it "God's holy cause," and called upon the young men of the country, to "trust in God and Jeff Davis." What Quaker can trust in Holden or his administration.

But to the letter:

BAKERSVILLE, June 27th, 1870.

HON. JO. W. HOLDEN,

Dear Sir:—Colonel G. W. Kirk is in this county recruiting a regiment for the State service. He will have his command ready by Thursday next, (this is Monday.) The boys in Mitchell are volunteering willingly and coming up boldly. Mitchell county, if necessary, will raise 400 men in a week. The fact is Union men up here are "anxious for the fray," and have put up with about as much as they can bear. They have been lenient and forgiving and have treated these rebels kindly, but all to no purpose, and they have determined that "if neither words nor grass will do, they will try what virtue there is in stones."

The Union men are well pleased with the Governor, they are determined to stand by him. I tell you this is no idle boast. I know what I say, and "whereof I speak."

On yesterday, (Sunday,) thirty one stout, able-bodied young men were enrolled in at least one hour in our village. The rebels are rather "down in the mouth," and many of them already begin to "fear and tremble."

I think the Governor acted wisely in giving Col. Kirk a commission; he is the right man in the right place; the rebels have not forgotten the name of "Kirk;" he will put the K. K. K's through, certain.

Stand firm, the State government must, and shall be preserved and sustained, and you will find that the Union men will not be backward in doing so.

SUPREME COURT.

SATURDAY, July 2.

The following case was argued to-day, to-wit:

John W. Davis vs. Drury Morgan, from Union county. Council for plaintiff, C. Dowd, Esq., and for defendant, Messrs. Battle & Sons.

The Reds of Edgecombe nominated N. B. Bellamy (white) for the Senate and two colored men for the House. Little Dossey Battle was snubbed.

Geo. H. Gregory, Esq., is the Conservative nominee for the House of Representatives in Martin county.

Registrars in various sections are preparing to commence work.

The pic nic and excursion epidemic in some localities continues unabated.

The closing exercises of the Charlotte Female Institute came off on Tuesday last.

CAPT. J. J. DAVIS OF FRANKLIN.

Twice recently in the Standard, have appeared false and scurrilous charges against Capt. J. J. Davis, of Franklin, the Conservative candidate for the Senate for Franklin and Wake.

We at first intended to notice and refute these charges in the way they deserved, but ascertaining that they met the unqualified condemnation of very many of the Standard's own party, and was doing the paper and the party much more harm than it was doing Capt. Davis, (for, indeed, it did him no harm at all,) we concluded to let the matter pass along and work its legitimate effect.

The Standard of this morning publishes, without comment, a card from Capt. Davis, which we give below, and ask for it a careful perusal. It is short but pointed and decisive, and we suppose the editor of the Standard, if not from a sense of justice, will, for other prudential reasons, refrain from making or repeating such charges against Capt. Davis in the future.

We also append the remarks of Capt. Davis, delivered in the House of Commons on the 18th December, 1866, on a question of personal privilege, which remarks Capt. Davis dares the Standard to publish, and which it dare not publish, for fear of completely stultifying itself, in view of the false and malicious charges it has made against Capt. Davis.

A Card from Captain J. J. Davis.

To the Editor of the Standard:

SIR: In your issue of the 27th June inst., you say: "We made the distinct charge against Captain Davis, that after he was paroled he endeavored to raise a company and again enter the Confederate service, and that too in violation of his oath. What has he said?" I answer, I have said this statement was false. In February, I was paroled "not to take up arms against the Government of the United State until exchanged." The charge that I endeavored to raise a company and again enter the Confederate service while under this parole, is untrue.

The body of prisoners with whom I was paroled, before landing at Richmond, resolved that as soon as exchanged, they would return to their respective commands. My company was already in the service; and it was my purpose to rejoin it as soon as exchanged—this purpose was never concealed. Upon my return home, many questions were asked by kind friends relative to my prison life; and, at their request, I made a speech in Louisburg, in which I gave a narrative of my experience and observations while in prison. This was no violation of my parole; and no truthful man can be found who will say that I proposed to raise a company or to enter the service before exchanged, or anything like it. Though opposed to secession, yet after the deadly conflict began, I joined my kindred and entered the Confederate service in good faith, and not "for the purpose of embarrassing it;" and my anxiety to return to my company, as soon as exchanged, was well known to my friends.—The statement that I violated my parol, by whomsoever made, is false.

You also say: "Sir, you did more. You threatened your peers and equals with 9 and 30 lashes. We heard you say it. We know that you did do it." I answer to this; You heard no such thing. I did no such thing. There was an abortive attempt in 1865, by President Johnson and Governor Holden, to reconstruct this State. The Legislature of 1865 and '66 (over which Judge Settle presided in the Senate, and Hon. S. F. Phillips in the Commons, and which, in your parlance, was a loyal Legislature) passed an act punishing, by whipping, pillory and imprisonment, those who might attempt to overthrow the State government. I did not vote for this law—did not approve of it; but among the first to violate its provisions were those who favored it, and some who voted for it. I made a speech, which is reported in full in the Raleigh Sentinel, of Dec. 19th, 1866, in which I alluded to this law, and added that those who enacted laws ought to obey them or submit to their penalties. This is the only speech which I made upon the subject, and if you will publish it, your readers will see how much foundation there is for your charge. As you seem good at daring, I dare you to publish this speech of mine, and let your readers see the truth.

As to your opinions and your estimate of me I care nothing. I shall not learn lessons of honor from you,—and it was my purpose not to be diverted from the issues now before the people by anything personal; but as you have made distinct charges, I have deemed it not improper to answer them, lest some one, whose good opinion I might regard, should possibly suspect from my silence, under the circumstances, that you had told the truth.

JOS. W. DAVIS.

Louisburg, June 28, 1870.

The occasion of the following remarks of Mr. Davis, delivered on the 18th Dec., 1866, may be gathered from the foregoing Card to the Standard, and the remarks themselves:

Mr. Davis, of Franklin, said:—Mr. Speaker: I, too, rise to a question of privilege. Since the gentleman from Gaston has alluded to what transpired before the Judiciary Committee, and as the article which has been read, at the instance of the gentleman from Surry, reflects upon that Committee, as a member of it and in vindication of its course, I will state my understanding of the matter in issue. Some time since, when the gentleman from Wake, (Mr. Russ,) whose strong and life-long attachment to the Union is well known, introduced his resolutions, declaring the loyalty of the people of North Carolina, the gentleman from Henderson (Mr. Blythe) stated that he could not vote for them, because they were untrue as to his part of the State, and that in his county, Union men were persecuted, and that they were persecuted in the Courts. The gentleman from Surry, (Mr. Waugh) whose devotion to the Union is only equalled by his patriotic devotion to North Carolina and her honor, introduced a resolution instructing the Judiciary Committee to inquire into the alleged acts of abuse and persecution, to the end, as stated by him, that if these charges were true, steps might be taken to punish the guilty and prevent a recurrence of such outrages. The charge was a grave one, involving the character of the Judiciary of the State and the Solicitors who prosecute in her name. The law, which in this respect, is but the utterance of the sentiment of all honest, brave and good men, abhors persecution, and the Judge or Solicitor who would avail himself of his official position to persecute anybody, high or low, rich or poor, Union men or secessionists, white men or black men, should have his official robes torn from him, and be sent in disgrace and infamy from his high position. Mr. Davis knew of no species of official malfeasance baser than this, and he would go to the utmost extent to impeach and punish any officer who might be guilty of it. None but base cowards delight in persecution.

The gentleman from Henderson came before the Committee and was examined, and as the gentleman from Gaston has thought proper to allude to what transpired before that Committee, it may not be improper for me to state now, that his testimony does not show any case of persecution before the Courts or otherwise. On the contrary he only instanced one case of a quarrel and fight, between a Union man and another who claimed the right to attend a Union meeting. The latter was indicted, prosecuted and convicted by a Union Solicitor before a Union Judge. After this fight, a number of returned Union soldiers banded together in a riotous manner, beat and maltreated the alleged secessionist, for which they were indicted by the same Union Solicitor and some of them were punished by a Union Judge. The sum of it is, that some Union men were guilty of a violation of the law and were prosecuted for it before a Union Judge and by a Union Solicitor, and this is called "persecution of Union men." The testimony has this extent and no more. All of it shows a fair, an honest and an impartial administration of justice, in which the Judges and Solicitors of North Carolina, preserve her ancient fair fame as a law abiding and law enforcing State.

The gentleman from Henderson requested that the Senator from Rutherford (Mr. Harris) and the gentleman from Gaston (Mr. Jenkins) should be examined before the Committee. Mr. Harris was examined. No questions were put to him or to Mr. Jenkins or to any one else relative to their trip to Washington City or their business there. No interrogatories of any such purport were propounded to them, or to either of them, and I appeal to the gentleman from Gaston to know if this is not true?

Mr. Jenkins.—The statement is true. No such questions were asked.

Mr. Davis.—Now Mr. Speaker, I pronounce the statement contained in the paper which has been read at the Clerk's desk, a slander upon the Judiciary Committee,—a slander of the same character with those persistently and systematically circulated against the honest people of the State of North Carolina for months past. A people who, when the war ended and the armies of the South surrendered, with a manly dignity and with a quiet unanimity, unparalleled in the history of nations, gave in their adhesion to the Union, and returned to the sweet pursuits of peace to rebuild their shattered fortunes. The history of the world cannot show a disbanded soldiery who returned so quietly and so orderly to their various pursuits, and the charge that they do not mean to abide faithfully the results of the war is a base, and mischievous slander.

But the gentleman from Gaston says, he believes that there is treason in North Carolina—that he never heard of such questions as were asked by the Committee.—Well, sir, since he has alluded to that, I will state some of the questions propounded. Witnesses were asked if they knew of any persecutions of Union men. No evidence, except a solitary instance, was produced of it. They were asked if any Judges or Solicitors were known to neglect their duties or to prosecute any man because he was a Union man. They answered "No." On the contrary, that they discharged their duties faithfully. They were asked if they knew of any man or set of men who were disobedient to the laws,—if they knew of any person or persons who, by word or deed, counselled, aided, advised or in any way abetted opposition to the Union or encouraged disobedience to her laws, or to the constituted authorities of the United States? They answered "No." They were asked if they knew any one disloyal to the Union? The answer, like the others, was "No." The question was then asked if any one was known to conspire against the State or to counsel or advise its overthrow? This question was answered affirmatively, as much to my astonishment as any question propounded could have been, to the gentleman from Gaston. But, sir, the evidence will be before the House, and I have been led into this digression by the remarks of the member from Gaston.

There may be treason in the land, as the gentleman says he believes there is. It may be so, and perhaps the difference may be one of opinion as to where it exists. I shall not say where it is, but there is a law, passed at the last session of this General Assembly, which consigns to the whipping post and to infamy the man who conspires to overthrow the State government. The gentleman's friend, the Senator from Rutherford, I see from the Journals, voted for that law. I am always willing to abide by the laws, while they exist, whether they are of my own enactment or not.

But sir, after all, it only verifies, the wisdom of that Poet of nature, Mr. Burns, when he sings:

"But, loyalty truce! We're on dangerous ground,
For who knows how opinions may alter?
The doctrine that to-day is loyalty sound,
To-morrow may bring us the halter."

The law doubtless was passed to catch a different class of men, but let that pass. I cannot trust myself to speak of the scorn and contempt which I feel for self branded traitors, who, confessing their perjury, would hang men in 1866, for what they taught them in 1856; who after having sowed broadcast for twenty years, the seeds of secession, and of sectional strife and hatred, which have produced so much of bitterness and war, instead of pouring oil upon the troubled waters, now, not content with the wreck and desolation around them, are sowing broad cast the seeds of mistrust, and loosing instead of cementing the bands of Union.

We are told, sir, that our doom is fixed, "traitor and his deserved fall," &c. It may be so. I am no politician. I was never a secessionist I have never known any policy beyond the honest expression of my views, and I would rather carry with me to the dungeon or to the stake, the consciousness of good intentions and an honest devotion to civil liberty, and to the honor, the welfare and the happiness of my countrymen, than to wear pro consular robes, or the purple itself, obtained by base sycophancy and by slandering as brave, as honest and as truthful a people as the sun ever shown upon.

There is such a thing as conscience, that will not sleep always, and I had rather bear the whip of asps or the sting of scorpions, than to carry in my bosom, though asleep, the consciences of such men.

CASH ASSETS - - - - - - - - $500,000.

YOUNG, HEALTHY, VIGOROUS AND CONDUCTED BY A WISE, PRUDENT, AND ECONOMICAL BOARD OF DIRECTORS UPON A

NEW SYSTEM,

devised by its talented and distinguished Actuary CHAS. N. MORGAN, which must make it the leading Company in America, for persons in and all who appreciate and demand the most UNQUESTIONABLE SECURITY, at rates in most cases, considerably lower than those of the leading Mutual Cash Companies.

The Excelsior issues Policies on all the plans of Mutual or Stock Companies, extending to policy holders, all the really desirable advantages. Its policies being non-forfeiting, the insured are privileged to live and travel where they please in any healthy part of the world, they participate in its profits, are allowed 30 days grace for payment of renewal of premium, a cash surrender of policy, and a privilege which has never been offered by any other Company, that of converting Policies into after the payment of 5 or more annual premiums.

☞ Hitherto, I have been restricted in the very popular Company which I had the honor to represent to Stock rates alone, which most of the Mutual, and mixed Companies have adopted. This disadvantage, together with the multiplication of many new Companies in this State, who claimed to possess unusual charms, together with the extraordinary attractions presented by the Excelsior induced me to accept the management of that Company, whose plan combines all the popular features of other Companies, represented in this State, without an exception, and the additional privilege of converting policies, which the holder can not afford to keep up, or wishes to discontinue because of the death of those for whose benefit the policy was secured, into an Annuity Bond which provides an income to exist through life, or for a series of years as preferred.

Circulars giving full explanations and any other information, will be cheerfully furnished.

The most liberal arrangements, will be made with first class solicitors, to push the EXCELSIOR forward in the Old North State, to that position which her low rates and most ample security entitle her to occupy.

REMOVALS.—We notice to-day that Mr. S. D. Wait General Agent of the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company in this State, has moved his office to the building opposite the Post Office.

Mr. M. J. Mosley has removed his Confectionery, ice cream and soda joint establishment to the building opposite, recently occupied by M. Rosenbaum as a Dry Goods store.

We will publish the appointments for candidates speaking, on Monday.

MORE COTTON BLOOMS.—Through Messrs. A. G. Lee & Co., of this city, who furnished the guano for the crop, we have a cotton bloom from the farm of Mrs. S. A. Banks, ten miles South of Raleigh, which was found on Thursday, 30th June. This is the second reported in Wake.

We suppose that cotton blooms will now become so common, especially among our good farmers, as to be nothing worth talking about.

WESTERN AND ATLANTIC RAILWAY.—Mr. A. B. Wrenn, Eastern Passenger Agent for the Western and Atlantic Railway, paid us a visit today, in the interest of the line for which he is acting as agent, that link in the great route South and West, from Atlanta to Chattanooga. Mr. Wrenn's headquarters at present are at Greensboro', where information concerning the line may be obtained from him.

BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.—We have from Messrs. Caxton, Remsen & Hafelfinger, Philadelphia, through Jesse A. Jones, Bookseller, of this city, a new Southern Romance, by Wm. Falconer, Esq., entitled "Bloom and Brier." We have but glanced through it, and from the cursory examination should pronounce it emphatically a love story, abounding with a good deal of the chivalry that characterized the former regime of the sunny South. The language and composition is smooth and pleasing; sometimes a little grandiloquent, but not tiresome.

The Book is for sale by Jesse A. Jones, at his Book stoore.

POOR OLD "MOSE," LET HIM DIE.—The Standard Local of this morning had a plea for the poor brutes, and gave instances of cruelty to them that demanded the interference of restraining law. Among the rest a boy beating a poor old horse over the head and kicking him in the ribs.

The merciful interference of the Standard Local came too late, for the poor old animal died this morning, and we saw his carcass at the tail of a wagon, being dragged off to his last resting place beyond the corporate limits.

A Broadside for Humbugs.

Incompetence and assurance generally go hand in hand, and of all the tribe of pretentious know-nothings with which society is afflicted, the unscientific "medicine men" who attempt to tamper with the health of the community are the most dangerous and the most impudent.

So much by way of Text. Now for a special and particular application.

It appears that a mushroom growth of so called "Bitters" is springing up under different names in various localities particularly in the Southern and Western States, which the vendors have the hardihood to recommend to easy-going people upon whom they think they can impose, as a substitute for Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, long recognized by every class as the purest and best medicated stimulant and invigorant the world affords.

The concoctions referred to being composed of worthless material, offer a larger margin for profit than that Celebrated Tonic, and hence the anxiety of dollar worshipping dealers to foist them upon the public in its place.

But "forewarned is forearmed," and all parties whom these distinguished (!) beings are endeavoring to coax and inveigle into substituting trash for a standard remedy, are hereby informed of the selfish and sordid motives which underlie the representations in question.

The great popularity and vast sales of Hostetter's Bitters cannot, of course, be seriously impaired by these "tricks of trade," but as the debilitated and suffering have a direct interest in the matter, it is only an act of common humanity to put them on their guard.

For the Sentinel.

RALEIGH, July 2nd, 1870.

MR. EDITOR:—It pleased some of my Republican friends, at the late Republican Convention for Wake county, when I was not present, to put my name forward as candidate for Coroner of the county. I was chosen candidate by a decided majority of the Convention.

Mr. James Harris, Republican candidate for Congress in this District, coming in after the vote was taken, said the Convention had "played the devil, after all (his) efforts to prevent such a thing."

He spoke against my nomination, and said the "white people would object to a colored man entering their parlors, with many more remarks of an offensive character, and reflecting on me.

Now, I have never known an inquest held in a parlor, though such a thing might occur. But, if I had been nominated and elected, and had been called on to discharge such a duty, I have been in as many parlors perhaps, as Mr. Harris has. I have been in gentlemen's parlors in this city ever since the burning of the old capital, and even before.

I cared nothing about the Coroner's place, but I am not to be set aside by Mr. Harris on such grounds as he states.

If Mr. Harris goes to Congress, he must expect to sit in the parlors of members. If he is worthy to sit in Congress with them, he should think himself worthy to sit in their parlors. If colored men are not fit for the office of Coroner, they are certainly not fit for Congress.

I am credibly informed that, about the time my nomination was opposed by Mr. Harris here because I might have to go into gentlemen's parlors in the discharge of the duties of the office, the Conservatives and Democrats of Cumberland county, actually nominated a colored man to that very office, although they have not been as profuse as some others in promises on this subject.

But my purpose in this card is, to call on Mr. Harris to state the objections he made against me in the meeting, as I was not present to hear them; and to state any other secret objections he may have entertained, as I feel some anxiety to know them.

Respectfully,
MOSES PATTERSON.

KIRK THE MONSTER—A WAR REMINISCENCE.

It is known that W. W. Holden has appointed one Kirk of Tennessee as his agent in this State to carry out his nefarious scheme of overawing the people in the approaching election by means of the bayonets of negro militia.

During the war this man Kirk was a bloodthirsty federal renegade, and since then has been the pliant tool of the infamous Brownlow.

We have heard from the most reliable authority, an instance of the disbolism of this man during the war which must thrill with horror every one, and should forever blast with infamy the Governor who would call to his aid such a devil incarnate.

Collecting in Tennessee during the war a gang of cut-throats, he made an unexpected raid into the Western part of this State, coming as far as Morganton. Just as he entered the State his purpose was discovered by a little boy not more than fifteen years old, who immediately mounted a horse and riding hard gave notice of the advance of the raiders. This enabled the citizens to rally and defeat their aims.

By some means Kirk found out the name of the boy, and on his retreat had him arrested and brought before him, threatening to kill him. The little fellow—thoroughly frightened, implored for mercy and falling on his knees, prayed for his life. In this position, the inhuman fiend immediately drew out his pistol and blew out the brains of his innocent victim.

And such is the man employed by W. W. Holden to prey upon the people of North Carolina!—Tarboro' Southerner.

A slight disturbance took place at Tarboro' on Sunday, between a number of white and black men. Nobody hurt.

Weldon is to have a new Post office.

The Commissioners of Halifax county, have appointed Registrars for the coming election.

There will be an excursion from Weldon to Norfolk on the 4th inst.

Ridgeway will shortly have an Episcopal Church.

A Committee of Bullock's Georgia Legislature have given him an endorsement. This is as valuable as the endorsement Whittemore received from the carpet-bag fraternity of South Carolina. They are most approved rascals—and their gangs applaud them heartily.

Coughs—As a Soothing Pectoral, BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES are advantageously employed to alleviate Coughs, Sore Throat, Hoarseness and Bronchial affections. Those exposed to sudden changes of weather should have them, as they can be carried in the pocket and taken as occasion requires upon the first appearance of a Cold or Cough.

Coin in the Treasury $112 730,000; currency nearly $29,000,000.

The Senate resumed the consideration of the tax bill. There was a spirited discussion on the proposition to tax income from Government bonds five per cent. The amendment was rejected. An amendment was adopted providing that the tax on salaries of Government officers shall cease August 1st.

HOUSE.—A bill granting the right of way to the Alabama Railroad through public lands in California, passed.

The funding bill reported by the Ways and Means Committee, was taken up and passed, yeas 129, nays 41.

The bill authorizing the issue of 1,000,000,000 of bonds redeemable in thirty years at 4 per cent interest, exempt from taxation by the United States or States. The bonds to be sold at par and the proceeds to be devoted to the redemption of five-twenty bonds at par value. It also authorizes the secretary of the Treasury to receive gold on depo it in sums not less that $100, for which certificates are to be issued, bearing 3 per cent. These deposits may be withdrawn at any time on 30 days notice. Seventy-five per cent of these deposits are to be issued to redeeming bonds. The bill directs that all bonds purchased by the secretary of the Treasury, and now held in the Treasury, shall be cancelled and destroyed, and deducted from the outstanding public debt.

COMPARATIVE COST OF LIFE INSURANCE, as exhibited by an insurance in the Widows' and Orphans' Benefit Life Insurance Company of New York, under their system of Tontine Dividends, and an insurance in any other Company, under its system of annual dividends. For illustration, suppose a person aged 37 years, insures in a company charging on a low annual payment policy of $10,000, an annual premium of $135.70,

He would pay in 10 years,	$1,357.00
Less an average dividend of 40 per ct.	542.80
Making the nett cost of his insurance in 10 years,	$814.20
In the Widows' and Orphans' Benefit Life Insurance Company, his annual premium would be $849 10, and in 10 years he would pay	$8491.00
Less Tontine Dividend in cash, at end of 10th year,	3,291.09
Making the net cost, in W. & O. Life Insurance Co., in 10 years,	$199.29

Giving a clear saving in 10 years of $3,014 91, by insuring on the Tontine plan.

This plan of insurance is fully endorsed and recommended as better to the assured, and giving greater security to the Company and policy-holder, by the Hon. Wm. Barnes late Supt. of the Insurance department of the State of New York, and by the leading Financiers of New York as well as by all competent insurance actuaries in the United States. THE EQUITABLE
HAS BECOME THE LEADING COMPANY OF THE WORLD.

Its New Business (sum assured), for the year 1869, exceeded that of the second company in rank by more than THIRTEEN MILLION DOLLARS.

In 1860 it was the 9th Company in new business for the year; in 1861 it was the 8th; in 1862 and 1863, the 7th; in 1864 and 1865 the 6th; in 1866, the 4th; in 1867, the 3d; in 1868, the 2nd;

In 1869 it was the FIRST.

The insuring public should not allow itself to be deceived with regard to the term "Annual Dividends." Many companies using this expression mean that their dividends are "annual" AFTER THEY ONCE BEGIN TO PAY THEM AT ALL; but they DO NOT BEGIN TO PAY until the settlement of the third, fourth, or fifth premium.

One hundred Dollars paid 1 dividends at the end of one year, and each year thereafter, equals FOUR HUNDRED AND THIRTY SIX DOLLARS paid at the end of FOUR YEARS, interest at six per cent.

Applications for Assurance may be made to any of the Society Agents throughout the country, or in person or by letter to the General Agents.

UNPRECEDENTED SUCCESS

Medal Awarded by the Paris Exposition, 1867.

THE AMERICAN COMBINATION Button Hole & Sewing Machine

Has been honored with the highest award in premiums and diplomas wherever entered for competition at fairs and exhibitions held during the past season.

THE SIMPLICITY, EASE AND CERTAINTY with which this machine operates as well as the uniform excellence of its work, throughout the entire range of Sewing, in Stitching, Hemming, Felling, Tucking, Cording, Braiding Quilting, Gathering & Sewing on, Overseaming, Embroidering on the Edge, and its Beautiful Button-Hole and Eyelet Hole Work.

Place it unquestionably far in advance of any other similar invention.

It is also the CHEAPEST intrinsically, as well as the BEST, since it is really TWO MACHINES combined in one, (by a simple and beautiful mechanical arrangement never before accomplished by human ingenuity,) making either the Lock Stitch, or Button-Hole Stitch, as occasion may require. It is, at the same time, simple in construction, comparitively noiseless, easily understood, and in a word, it combines with these ADVANTAGES, EXCLUSIVELY ITS OWN, THE MOST DESIRABLE QUALITIES OF ALL OTHERS.

The public are invited to examine this remarkable machine at Mrs. TOMPKINS' Boarding House, (Mrs. Thompson's old stand,) Fayetteville Street, and at Watson's Photographic Gallery.

Instructions in the use of the machine will be given to all purchasers gratis.

NON-EXPLOSIVE COMBINATION BURNING FLUID

THE CHEAPEST, BEST AND SAFEST ILLUMINATING AGENT IN

THE WORLD!!

No more Exploded Cans!—No more Exploded Lamps!
No more Smoke!—No more Grease!
No more Fires!!

EVERYBODY PREFERS IT AFTER GIVING IT A TRIAL!

IT costs less!—It lasts longer!—Gives a more Brilliant Light!—May be burned in hand lamps, without chimney.

Guaranteed to make a better and safer Light than Coal Oil and to be NON-EXPLOSIVE!!!

No accidents have ever happened with it.

Protected by Copy right for 28 years from May 8th 1868.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivalled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and uninjurious to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 15th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA, WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skil and care in the selection of risks,—upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important safeguard. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.

The Globe has peculiar claims upon the Southern country, from having first introduced the non-forfeiting feature in all its policies. Its President, Mr. Pliny Freeman, was the inventor of the ten-year, non-forfeiture plan, and introduced it in the Company with which he was then connected.

The Globe takes no notes; but receives its premiums in cash, and pays its policies in cash, without deduction.

To those desiring it, the Company will issue policies, registered and certified by the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of New York, as "secured by pledge of public stock."
